WHAZZUP? COMMENTS FROM THE MAYOR

As of this date, the Governor has not approved government meetings in a public place and is still stressing staying at home as much as possible.

We are open at City Hall, but we ask you leave any messages or payments through the drop box as we have the door locked as all of our county and local governments observe the distancing practice.

Some city meetings have resumed. Please check the schedule or call City Hall for the list.

Meanwhile, the Census forms are being sent through the mail. Please be sure to fill them out and return them. Last census some of our citizens did not fill them out and it effected our road use money, as well as other city functions. Over a ten-year period that is a significant amount.

A reminder about our fireworks law.

Dates: July 04th and the Saturday and Sunday preceding and following July 4th

Hours: 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.

The next council meeting will be June 11th and, under current guidelines, will be conducted on Zoom and we welcome audience and press participation. Login information will be posted on the agenda.

Kevin Kernan, Mayor
