Winter Reminders

Be sure to have your furnace and fire place checked.
Please do not blow snow into the street

What is a snow emergency? When ice or four (4) inches of snow is present and declared by the Mayor, Chief of Police, or chair of the Street Committee. It will stop when streets are cleared or 24-hours after the snow stops.

Notification will be posted on the website and the LED sign outside the Community Center.

Important Information

Street Parking: No vehicle on any street in the city shall remain parked for more than 24 hours in any one location when it interferes with snow removal.

Parking areas will be provided by the city and marked as such. They may be used if two (2) inches or more of snow is predicted. They must be removed
